

An Update From Ryan-

As most of you know, due to COVID-19 and the borders in SE Asia closing, I had to come back to the U.S. The work I began overseas had just started, and it was hard and sad to have to come back here so soon. Overseas I was making friends and sharing the love of Jesus on a regular basis. My heart for sharing the Gospel has not changed and although I am in a different location than I expected and what I am doing looks different, my heart is to continually be on mission. Since I have been back, I have been able to pour into several lives encouraging them to be mission-minded.

Please pray for me! Due to coming home so soon, I had to leave most of my belongings overseas in my apartment. More importantly, pray that I will utilize the time I'm here to empower and equip others for ministry, while continually sharing Truth wherever I go!

God Bless,
Ryan Adams
